The facts that warrant the fore going statement are these Mone was needed in advance for paying some of the necessary expenses o the last county fair. To secure that money the officers and two or three other members of the association jointly signed notes at the Socorre State bank. Owing to one extraor-dinary and unforescen item of expense in holding the fair the notes have not been paid and the interest on them has accumulated for nearly three years. The money raised on morally and legally under obligation George L. Shakespeare will act as to pay the debt. Otherwise the signers will have to pay on the nates selt and P. A.
